

*Erika Thompson
&
Jerry Chmelyk*

•
June 12, 2008

•
Po'olena'lana Beach Makena, Maui

GWP
George Wolf Photography
www.georgewolf.com

Our Wedding

The bride gets a little help from her parents before taking her last walk as a single woman.

After a few showers passed through Makena it came time for the couple to tie the knot and join together in marriage. The ceremony began with Rev. Tino blowing on the conch shell to signal the arrival of the beautiful bride.

Marriage is a commitment to life and to the best that two people can find and bring out in each other. It offers opportunities for sharing and growth no other human relationship can equal. It is a physical and emotional journey that is promised for lifetime.

Marriage deepens and enriches every facet of life.

Happiness is fuller, memories are fresher and commitment is stronger.

Marriage understands and forgives the mistakes that life is unable to avoid. Yet it encourages and nurtures new life, new experiences and new ways of expressing love through the seasons of life.

Marriage is a promise made in the hearts of two people who love each other, and this will take a lifetime to fulfill.

Butterflies are recognized as symbols of transformation and new life. People around the world view butterflies as signs of good fortune. There is also a legend that tells of butterflies carrying our thoughts and wishes directly to the heavens to those we have lost. Hopefully, as the legend says, these extraordinary messengers will deliver all of our "aloha" to our loved ones for us.

Our Ofana

*You were meant for me
I believe you were sent to me
From the dreams
trailing to my heart"*

-Ben Harper
"Beloved One"

"I saw you in my dreams

We were walking hand in hand

On a white, sandy beach of Hawaii"

-Israel Kamakawiwo'ole

*"If everyone in the world
Would give me their treasure
I would not want for more Than I have right now"*

-Sade

Aloha Nui Loa
"an eternal love"